

The Impact Of Section 377 Judgment On Hetero sexual Relations...

This week shall forever be entrenched as historic, given the verdict of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Navtej Singh Johar v. Union of India,[1] wherein it partially struck down the draconian Section 377 of the Indian Penal Code, thereby uphold...

Principle of pragmatic interpretation Section 377, as it stood before, prohibited carnal intercourse against the order of nature with any man, woman or animal. Penetration was sufficient to constitute carnal intercourse under the Section.[2] However...
